

HOLIDAY FURNITURE

Make Furniture Your Gift

An occasional chair?
Just the thing.
To your home now friends 't will bring.

For Grandfather's gift?
Lend me your ear.
Why not give him an easy chair?

Make Grandmother's heart happy and light;
A sewing cabinet? What a delight.

For sister a writing
desk,
in form a spinet.
Home cherished gift and up to the minute.

A floor lamp for father
and mother, too,
Will shed its radiance
the whole year through.

A gateleg table you should give,
A cherished keepsake
that will live.

For mother, a tea wagon
with service neat;
Joy to hostess, to guest a treat.

On your friend book ends
bestow;
They'll hold his best volumes in a neat row.

Buy a humidor for dad or brother.
Don't seek farther,
your worries are over.

The Silver Fox and Flying Eagle patrols of the Presbyterian boy scouts gathered last evening at the manse for their annual supper with their scoutmaster, Rev. W. McN. Kittredge, who is recovering from a slight illness.

Beans, rolls, cake, cookies, coffee, cocoa and everything else necessary for a real banquet was the fare of the youngsters. After the banquet they played games, sang a few songs and, after looking over arrowhead and stamp collections returned to their homes.

Chilly weather did not deter several hundred prospective Christmas shoppers from appearing on the street last evening to see the window opening in all of the Barre stores and the cool trip was well worth the trouble for the window displays are the best ever.

North pole effects, Christmas trees, fire places and various other designs were worked in by the majority of the merchants to attract public attention. An animated display was the choice of others and it certainly did attract the crowds.

WEBSTERVILLE.

Funeral of Mrs. Napoleon Amedy Held at St. Sylvester's Church.

Funeral services for Mrs. Napoleon Amedy were held Saturday morning at 9 o'clock in St. Sylvester's church, Granville. A large gathering of friends and neighbors were in attendance paying last respects to the honored dead. The bearers were four sons and two sons-in-law, as follows:

Charles, John, Fred and Herbert Amedy, Henry Turcott and Clifford Gasmache. A large and beautiful floral tribute, including three waxed pieces, two sprays and a wreath, bore mute testimony to the esteem in which the deceased was held. Sincere sympathy is extended to the bereaved husband and family.

The condition of Rev. E. W. Church is greatly improved and it is hoped he may be out in our midst very soon.

Miss Mildred Genke has gone to Montpelier, where she has employment.

Mr. and Mrs. Christie were callers at the home of William Laird on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Mitchell have returned from a visit in Springfield and Boston. Congratulations are extended by a host of friends.

Mr. and Mrs. William Edwards and son, Harlan, of Topham were Sunday visitors in town.

Edward Dubie spent Sunday at his home here. He is now employed on a quarry in Adamant.

The school children are preparing a Christmas program which will be given at the school on Friday afternoon.

Card of Thanks.

We wish to extend our heartfelt thanks to all those who in any way helped us during the illness and death of our beloved wife and mother; also do we wish to thank those who sent the beautiful flowers. All was greatly appreciated.

Napoleon Amedy and family.

The NEW EDISON

London Console
Moderately Priced

We take pleasure in presenting the latest model in the famous New Edison, an artistic Console design available at an unusually moderate price.

The beautiful London Console, finished in deep, rich mahogany, is worthy of a place in the finest home. Aside from its charm, from the standpoint of tasteful furniture, it offers the world's best music as only a New Edison can RE-CREATE it. This is the least expensive of all console models in the New Edison—its price is only $135.00. May we show you this design and demonstrate its mechanical perfection?
